

Kazuhiko TAKESHIMA

Biographical Details

Kazuhiko TAKESHIMA is Chairman of the Japan Fair Trade Commission (the JFTC) .

Mr. Takeshima joined the JFTC in 2002 following a three-year career with the Prime Minister's Office where he served as Assistant Chief Cabinet Secretary following Chief Cabinet Counselor for Internal Affairs in Cabinet Secretariat.

Earlier in his career he held a position as Commissioner of the National Tax Agency. He also served as Deputy Vice Minister for Policy Coordination and Deputy Director-General of Budget Bureau at the Ministry of Finance following a 30 year-career at the Ministry.

Mr. Takeshima holds a B.A. (Economics) degree from the University of Tokyo.