

Markus LANGE

Markus Lange is Head of the International Section of the Bundeskartellamt. He joined the Bundeskartellamt in September 1994 and has worked as case handler and rapporteur on cases predominantly in the sectors of automotive industry, banking, logistics/ transport. In the General Policy Division of the Bundeskartellamt he worked on issues concerning network industries and in the Public Relations Section.

Markus Lange was born in 1968. He studied Economics at the University of Karlsruhe/ Germany, earning his degree in Economic Engineering in 1993, and completed further studies in Economics and Public Administration in England, Belgium and the US.